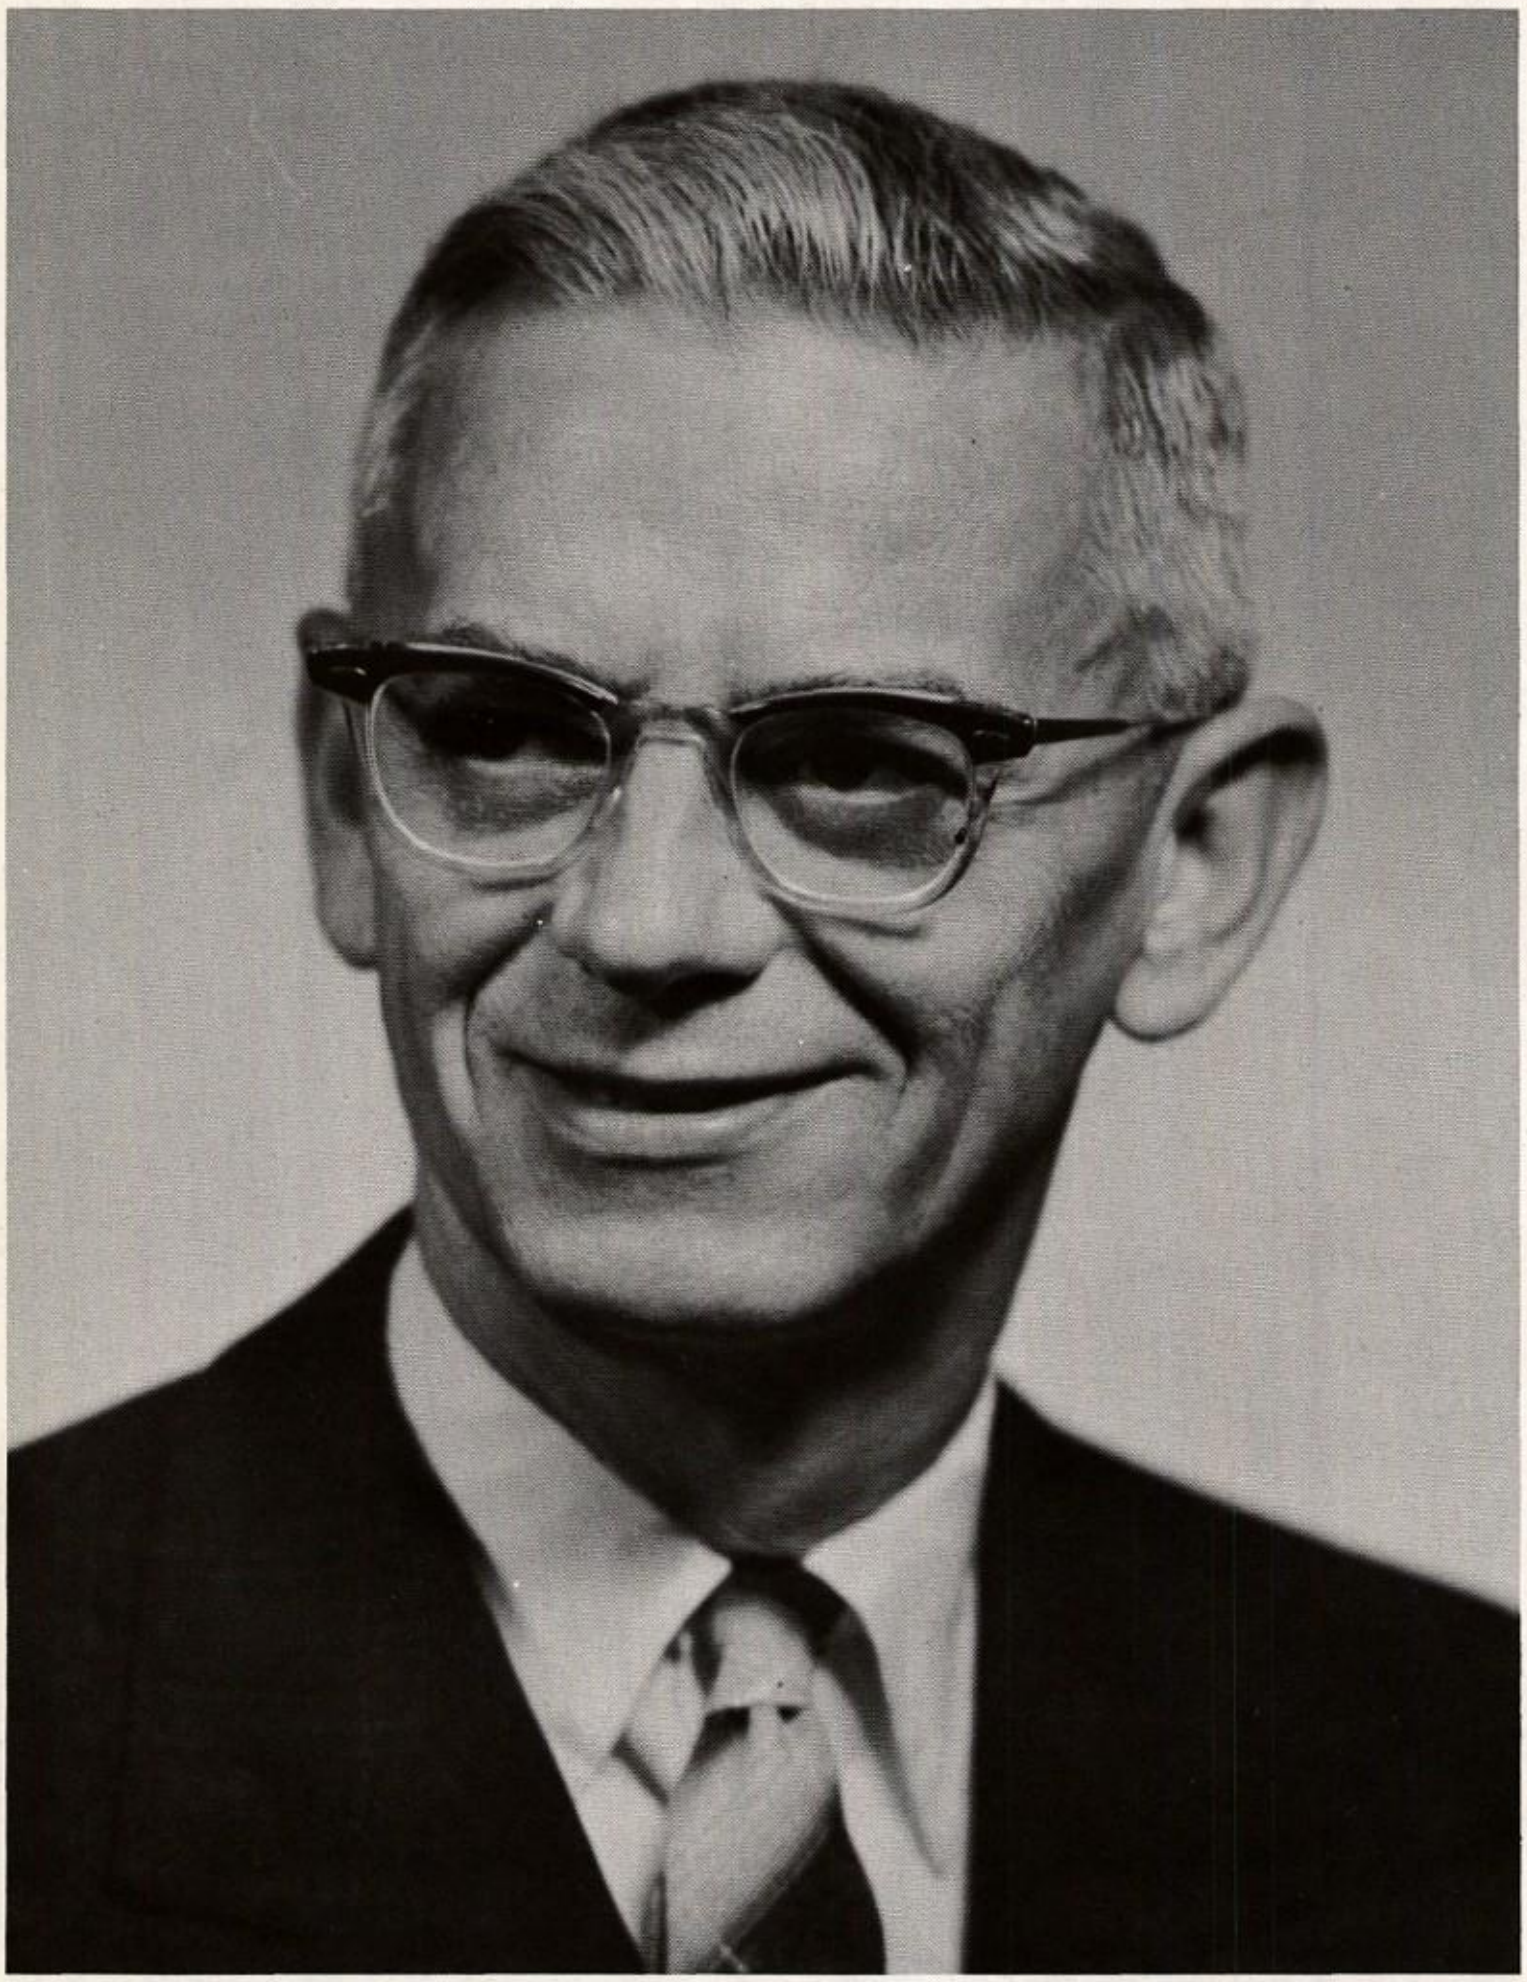
VERITAS VIRTUS VIGILIA

MASACKSIC 1958



The Dedication

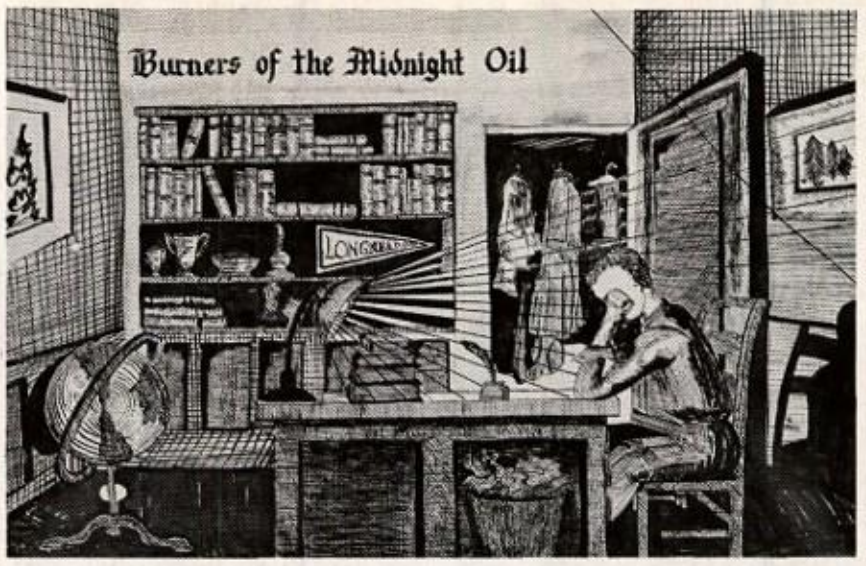
With most sincere appreciation for his guidance and interest during our years in the Longmeadow School System and for his tireless efforts on our behalf, we, the Class of 1958, dedicate this MASACKSIC to Mr. Howard G. Herrschaft, Superintendent of Schools.

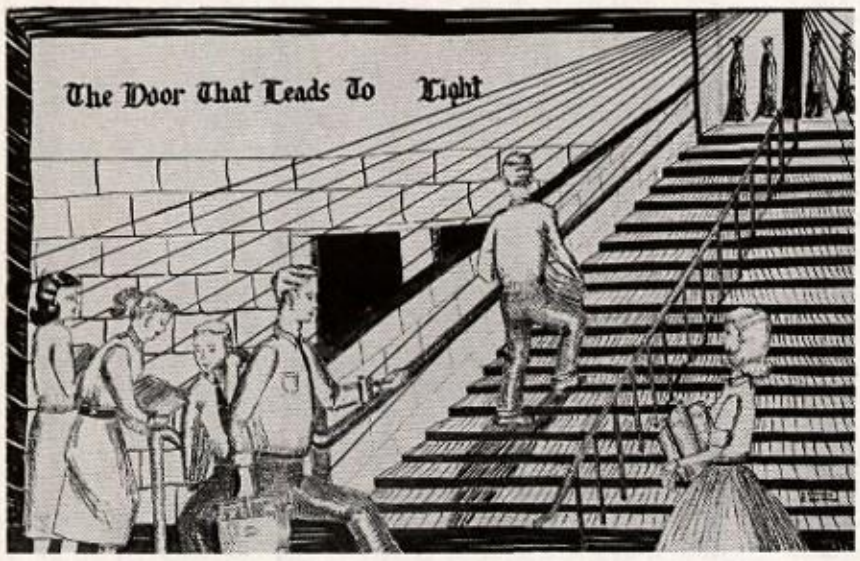
As I am writing this before the yearbook has taken on much of its final form, I am wondering what aspect of the adopted theme, "Light," will be emphasized. At the moment, I am impressed with the thought that you have chosen well. Light is a subject for thought and study. Light can be revealing or blinding, health-giving or hurtful, stimulating or debilitating — but always so necessary.

We have so much light: that of freedom, of knowledge, of responsibility. Along with the light we have been so generously granted, you and I equally must take to ourselves the intention to profit by what is revealed to us. I firmly believe that what God expects of each of us is that we "walk in the light."

To each one then who reads these few words, I can say only that there is no higher good for any man than that of a continuing search for the light of truth and a determination to live by the truth which that light reveals.

Howard G. Herrschaft

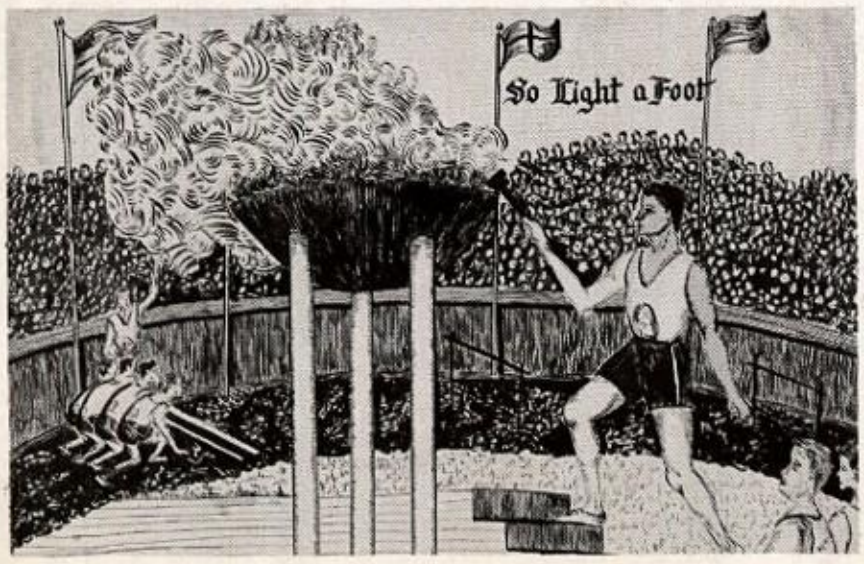




The Foreword

The Bible says that on the first day God created light. This light is not only a physical substance necessary to life, but also a symbol of that object which men continually seek, the knowledge and understanding of the world in which they live.

As students, it is our primary purpose to pursue this knowledge. Therefore, we have called light the theme of our yearbook.



In this age of almost undreamed of scientific advancement and knowledge, your high school diploma represents an achievement of great importance to your future. The era of "success without schooling" is on the wane, and education has become increasingly necessary to the fulfillment of ambition.

It is our hope that the training you have received will prove to be a firm and solid foundation upon which to build a lifetime of achievement. Even more, perhaps, we hope that you may have been inspired to a continuing search for knowledge.

I extend to each of you my warmest wishes for success and happiness in the future.

Ida O. Macfarlane

19 LONGMEADOW MASSACHUSETTS VERITAS VIRTUS VIGILIA HIGH SCHOOL 58

The final chapter in the history of the Class of 1958 will soon be written. It is your good fortune and privilege to graduate from Longmeadow High School. You should be looking forward to opportunities for further achievement and more worthy self-expression.

It is said that the world stands aside for the man who knows where he is going.

As you enter upon your next and more serious period of training and living, you must take with you a positive attitude toward what you want to become, know what you are going to be, and then go to it with all your determination.

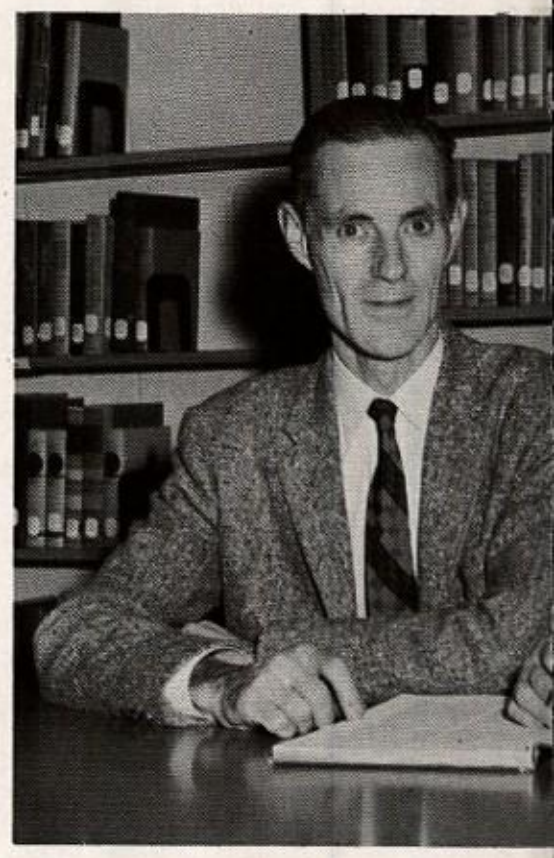
Aurelius



Mrs. Leab and Mr. Aldrich have served as advisors to the Class of 1958 for the past three years. During that time they have devoted much time and thought to the numerous problems confronting us in the new Longmeadow High School. We are indebted to them for their guidance, encouragement and continuing assistance.

CLASS

Upon the opening of the new Longmeadow High School in September, 1955, the Class of '58 entered the final stage of their education in Longmeadow. As members of the first student body, it became our obligation to lay the foundation for many aspects of school life and to make decisions which would remain unchanged for years to come.

During that first year we pursued the light of knowledge, relatively undisturbed by the blank walls, empty spaces, sounds of tractors, hammers, and busy workmen. We proceeded immediately to set several precedents. We named our school color, the school standard "Lancer", and organized the newspaper, student council, and various other clubs.

Next, we elected as our class officers for the year 1955-'56, Bill Gilbert, President; Ray Strople, Vice-President; Jody Baldwin, Secretary; and Anne Donovan, Treasurer. Mrs. Leab became our class advisor. After our first encounter with exams we proceeded in February of 1956 to hold the Sophomore Dance. As the social event of the year for our class, it was successful in every way except financially.

As the year progressed, we enthusiastically supported the school play, "A is for Apple", in which Deena Rosen and Betty D'Italia performed with distinction. Many members of our class were active, also, in the first annual Sport Night and in the Music Night. After final examinations, we departed for summer vacation, looking forward to the coming year, our first in an established high school.

When we returned to Longmeadow High in September, we found the rooms which had formerly been empty, filled with over a hundred and fifty new faces. In light of their presence our position as juniors became even more exalted. Although still second in command, we began to take a more active part in school affairs.

HISTORY

For class officers we elected Bill Gilbert, President; Dick Schneider, Vice-President; Anne Donovan, Secretary; and Christy Carlson, Treasurer. With the band, cheerleaders, and drill team in crisp new uniforms, we cheered our varsity teams to their first victories.

In March, we applauded Deena Rosen who starred as Emily Webb in the school production of "Our Town", and we again supported the Girls' Sport Night. By this time, we were also busy making plans for the Junior Prom which was to be held in May. Joyce Crowley and Dick Schneider were crowned Prom queen and king by Ray Strople, chairman of the dance. Since it was nearly a 'must' for all Juniors to attend the Prom and subsequent festivities, both proved unusually enjoyable.

After graduation of the Class of '57, and a rather fleeting summer, we re-entered school in September of 1957 as seniors, determined to equal the success of the previous class. We again elected officers for the school year. They were Bill Gilbert, President; Ray Strople, Vice-President; Anne Donovan, Secretary; and Christy Carlson, Treasurer. Dick Schneider had been elected president of the Student Council in June and Bob Fugere was chosen editor of the Masacksic. Faced with the responsibilities of school leadership and the sudden realization that we must make decisions very soon regarding our own future, we became more active in school affairs and absorbed in our studies. Ever optimistic, we followed our teams to every game, giving them our wholehearted support.

With no little regret, we are increasingly aware of the fact that our high school career is drawing to a close. We recognize our obligation to continue in the tradition of excellence which has been set for us. We resolve with a strong sense of school pride, which we will carry with us long after graduation, to meet this obligation.

After the fall appointment of Miss Gaines and Mr. Suher as faculty advisors, the 1958 Masacksic was under way. Contracting the photographer and printer, the staff set out on an unfamiliar road. To provide the school with a yearbook of which it could be proud, we early realized the necessity of hard work. Subscriptions had to be sold, dummies had to be prepared, and articles had to be written. The staff readily accepted this challenge, and as a result, have produced a yearbook which we feel fulfills our goal.

JET JOTTER

In the third year of publication, the Jet Jotter inaugurated several changes in the general appearance and layout. In September, a new masthead was adopted from a student design, and the newsprint was increased in length. Throughout the year, the entire staff, under the direction of Miss Jensen, Miss Vedany, and Miss Ericson, worked for improvement in the quality of the writing and production.

Staff members met, sometimes just barely, each successive deadline and despite a feeling of relief after distribution of the paper, editors, writers, and typists were never satisfied. Comments were answered with, "Wait 'till you see the next issue. It's going to be terrific!"

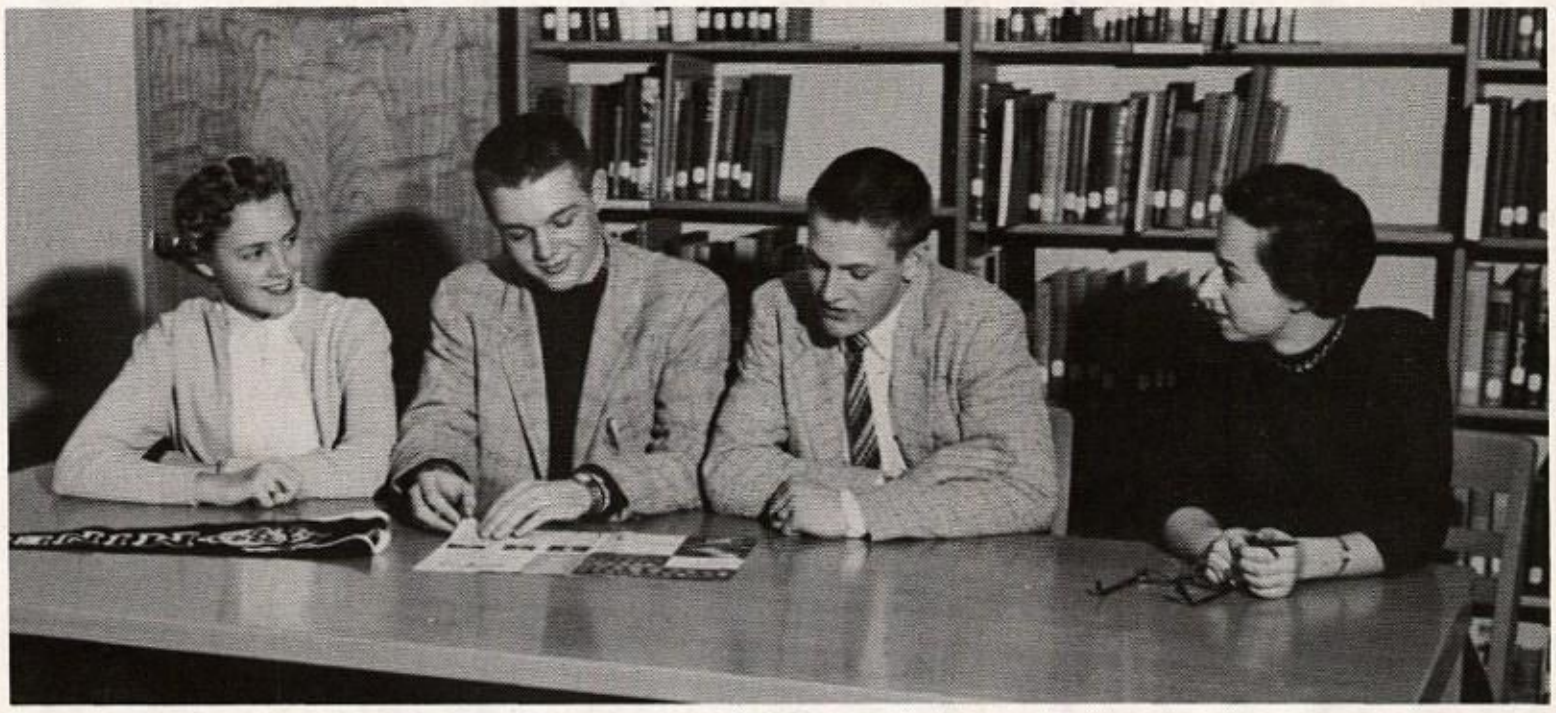
OUR LEADERS



NOW WHAT ABOUT THAT TRAFFIC SQUAD?

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council, determined to increase its scale of operation, started off with full steam. President Dick Schneider plunged us into a host of projects.

Since the Hall Patrol, already well-established, required little council time, our energy was spent on the refreshment stand which operated during the home football games. Although Coke was a slow seller during the more frigid November games, the stand was successful enough to become an annual council project. As the final event of the fall season, the soccer team, out-maneuvering the muscle-bound football team, came out of the Council-sponsored speedball game victoriously. The beginning of winter found the Council deeply involved in Vice-President Ed Mulkerin's pet idea, an orientation book, more commonly known as a handbook. This compact student's Bible should be off the press in time for next year. Other undertakings included the faculty-student basketball game; the selling of such items as bookcovers, pennants, and sweatshirts; the Student Council Scholarship Booster Day Program; and the Annual Spring Playday.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

In the fall of 1957, seven juniors and five seniors were elected to the Longmeadow High School Chapter of the National Honor Society, bringing the total membership to sixteen students. Officers for the coming year were elected, and they included Bill Gilbert, President; Bob Fugere, Vice-President; Anne Donovan, Secretary; and Frank Ward, Treasurer.

Under the direction of Miss MacIntyre, the faculty advisor, the Honor Society is one of the most active organizations in the school. One of the newer innovations, sponsored by the current members, was the January reception for the graduate members and the faculty.

Students are elected to the National Honor Society on the basis of character, service, leadership and scholarship.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

In March of 1957, the Dramatic Club hitched its wagon to a star and hung all its hopes on the one-night stand of Our Town. Fully aware of the immensity of their aspirations, the actors, supported by the inexorable determination of their director, Mr. Lopes, put their inexhaustible efforts into weeks of rehearsal. The result was a polished performance full of the sympathy, warmth, and informality intended by the author, Thornton Wilder. The Dramatic Club surpassed its own expectations and won resounding approval for its adult-sized venture.

In 1958, the Dramatic Club once again turned to comedy in the presentation of January Thaw. It was a challenge but the members again proved their ability by giving an outstanding performance. The success of future productions is assured because of the number of new faces which appeared in this year's cast.

Fourth Row: R. Fugere, D. Rosen, G. Stein, B. Heit, J. Bachulus, J. VanVoorhis, T. Taylor, M. Lethem, J. Simons, R. Kruger, R. Stahl, W. Cox.

THE DEBATING SOCIETY

One of the many innovations in school life this year was the formation of the Debating Society. Any student who showed interest could become a member. The Society met during activity periods, with Mrs. Harrison serving as the able advisor. During the meetings, the members discussed the principles and effective means of debating.

Some of the more interested debators attended the Model Congress at American International College. At this meeting the delegates drew up congressional bills, discussed them, and voted on them. Jerry Van Voorhis served as President of the Society, and Bob Fugere was Vice-President. In the future, inter-school debates are planned and these will soon become a very important part of the school's activities.

The Music Department of Longmeadow High School has been reorganized under the able direction of Mr. Douglas Ward.

For the freshman class, a special Freshman Chorus has been organized which meets twice a week for practice. The Freshman Chorus participated in both the Christmas Assembly and the spring concert. Upper classmen, interested in choral work, may join the Glee Club which meets once a week during activity periods. This group also appeared in the Christmas Assembly and the spring Music Night.

Probably the most noted and most active organization in the music department is the Band, a major factor in increasing school spirit. The Band has played stirring tunes at the football and basketball games this year. The group rehearses three times a week and, along with the choral groups, took part in the Christmas Assembly and Music Night. In their sharp uniforms of jet and white, the Band represented Longmeadow High School at the Western Massachusetts Music Festival held in Easthampton.

The second instrumental group about which the music department may boast is the Orchestra. This combination of serious talented students met twice weekly and performed with excellence at the spring concert.

The music department has made a fine start this year and shows much promise for the future.

FOOTBALL

The Lancers, in their second official season, played a schedule of six games. Although they were not successful in gaining a victory, their games were hard fought and never lacked excitement. The team was hampered by injuries most of the season, taking key men out of action. The Lancers found the larger and heavier teams hard to cope with, but they never lost their spirit and fight.

Standouts this year were Ed Mulkerin and Bob Swanson, co-captains; Paul Brouwer, Steve Kelty, Don Robb, and freshman, Al Stewart. Don Robb highlighted the season by making guard for the All-Western Massachusetts Small School Independent Team. Paul Brouwer and Peter Regan received honorable mention at quarterback and center respectively.

Being a more experienced team, next year's team, led by co-captains, Ed Mulkerin and Paul Brouwer, is looking forward to a more successful season.

SOCCER

The soccer team, coached by Mr. McCauley, showed considerable improvement in their second year of inter-varsity competition. Out of ten games, the Lancers won four, lost four, and tied two as compared to their three losses and one victory in the 1956 season. The squad of twenty-five players fought hard in every game. Co-captains were Dave Merrill and Ray Strople.

The 2-1 victory in a home game against Suffield was a welcome boost for the morale of both the players and the fans who lined the field.

The second game was against Classical which was said to have one of the best teams in the city. It was a fast played game with thrilling saves by goalie, Don Drinkwater. After a six minute overtime, the game ended in a scoreless tie.

The greatest score was piled in the final game when Longmeadow blanked Commerce 5-0. Jim Lawsing and Richie Schneider were standouts in this game bringing their point total to five goals each, the highest on the squad.

At the end of the '58 season a tentative soccer league was formed consisting of a team from West Springfield, Chicopee, Longmeadow, Ludlow, and Monson High Schools.

With eleven seniors bowing out there will be considerable new material in the 1958 squad.

BASKETBALL

In the 1957-1958 season the varsity basketball team had an outstanding record. Coached by Mr. Haskell, the Lancers were ranked among the top small school independent teams. After winning their first seven games, the Lancers were stopped by Commerce with a score of 47-37. In their second game with South Hadley they had a close call. However, they downed the South Hadley Tigers 54-52 in overtime on Dick Schneider's hook shot.

Glen Snyder demonstrated sporadic spurts of high scoring throughout the season. Dick Schneider and Bob Swanson, who were co-captains, gave consistently solid performances. John Cox and Paul Brouwer rounded out the starting five for the Lancers. Able reserves, Ned Cummings and Ed Mulkerin, saw considerable action.

The junior varsity and freshmen teams were coached by Mr. Josselyn and Mr. Suher respectively. Dick Murphy, Bob MacDonald, Ed Flagler, and Al Stewart look like promising players for the Lancers in the future.

Longmeadow had the unusual distinction of being chosen by the Western Massachusetts Small School Committee to represent all the greater Springfield schools. This is especially remarkable because our school has had only two years' experience on the basketball scene.

HOCKEY

The 1957-1958 hockey team started its season on December 19, playing Chicopee Vocational. In this first game, Longmeadow was victorious, winning 4-0. In its most exciting game, the Lancers registered a 7-2 win over Agawam High with Phil Collins and Alex Klutch leading the way with three goals each. During its second full season in Western Massachusetts School Boy Hockey, Longmeadow ended with three wins and six losses.

At the beginning of the season, the team elected as its co-captains, Pete Regan and Alex Klutch. The team was coached by Mr. Ness and his assistant, Mr. McCauley. Though the season was not a success from the standpoint of games won, many of the boys gained valuable experience, and the team is expected to end up in one of the top four positions in the Western Massachusetts Hockey League. The high scorers for the season were Alex Klutch and Don Jacques. Capable performance by Brian Edgerly, Pete Regan, Dick Zanolli, and Bob Kittredge deserved mention. The goal-tending was shared by Bill Cox and Phil Stone.

BOWLING

The bowling team was an innovation in the 1957-1958 sports program. The team bowled in the Interschool League along with Commerce, Trade, Classical, Technical, and Cathedral. Matches were held on Mondays and Thursdays at the Rose Bowl Lanes on State Street. Fifteen strings were bowled every match with a minimum of five bowlers participating. Regular bowlers were Wayne Barnes, Bob Cutler, Don Drinkwater, and Frank Ward. Others who took part were Tom Cordis, Bob Flint, Keith Lake, and Ted Taylor.

GOLF

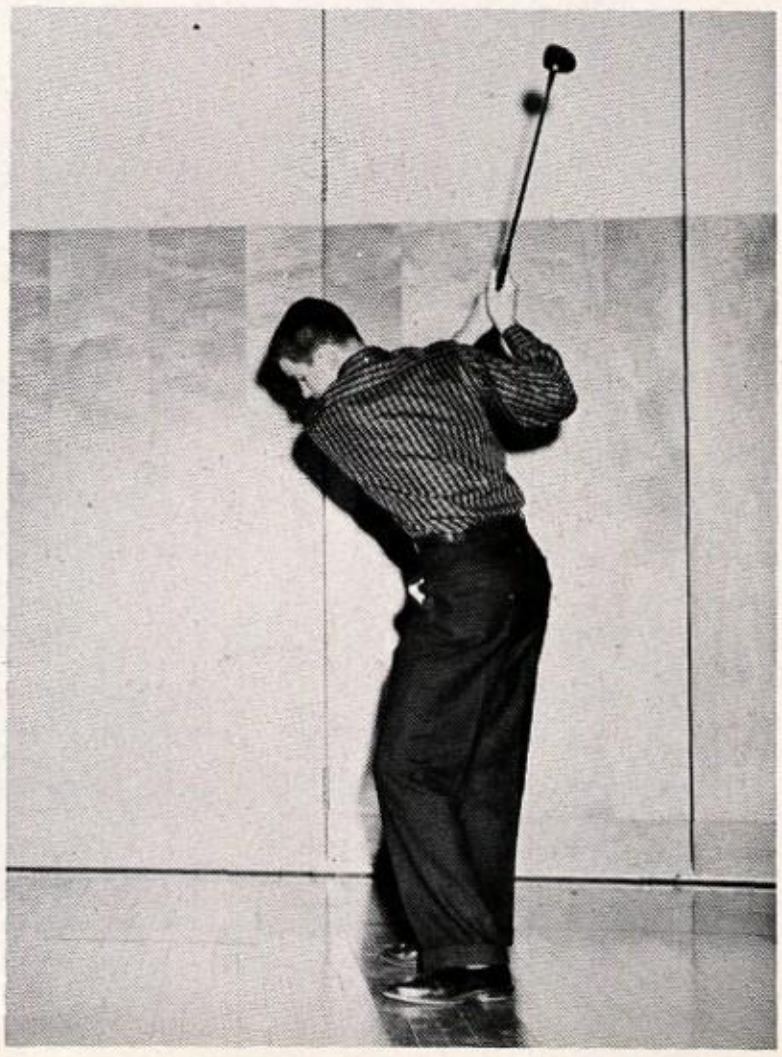
Coached by Mr. Haskell, the 1957 golf team had a successful season with five wins and four losses. The Lancers downed Tech and Westfield twice, and Ludlow once. John Turner was number one man for the Lancers.

After the season was over, John Turner and Pete Regan represented Longmeadow High School at the Invitational Tourney in Boston. Although neither of the boys placed, each considered that he had gained a great deal from the experience.



BASEBALL

Last season the Longmeadow High Baseball Team ended its first year with a four win, five loss record. Virtually the same team will be returning this year. Led by captain Dick Schneider, the team looks for a winning season in '58.

TRACK

Because a track takes several years to develop, Longmeadow did not have a track team in 1956. In 1957, however, the track and the field were ready for competition. In late April, Mr. Ursprung, the coach, called a meeting. The members of the squad planned their events and then prepared for their first track meet at East Windsor, Connecticut. At this meet with East Windsor, Tom McDonough threw the javelin 160 feet, a commendable feat for high school.

The climax of the track season was the Western Massachusetts Invitational Meet. The Longmeadow team placed fourth in the javelin throw, and fifth in the pole vault. The relay team, composed of Dave Merrill, Bob Kittredge, Dave Taylor, and Bill Cox, took first place in the 880 yard race.

The 1958 track team is looking forward to a more successful season with a greater number of meets scheduled.

TENNIS

In their first year of schoolboy competition the tennis team, coached by Mr. Lopes, finished with a 3-4 record. Pete Regan, Bill Purdy, and Don Drinkwater were the top men for this sport. Because the team did not lose any graduating seniors, the prospects for the '58 season look bright.

LEADERS' CLUB

The 1957-58 Boys' and Girls' Leaders' Club started off the season with their regular class responsibilities of demonstrating skills, leading classes in warmup exercises, taking attendance, checking showers, and bringing all equipment to and from class.

On Friday night, October 18th, the traditional Leaders Club Sock Hop was held. A high percentage of the school participated at this function and, as usual, everyone had a wonderful time.

Officers of the 1957-58 Girls' Leaders' Club are President, Christy Carlson; Vice-President, Alyce Atwood; Secretary, Pat Ashton; and Treasurer, Janet Larkin.

The members of the Boys' and Girls' Leaders' Club assisted Mrs. Wolcott and Mr. D'Agostino during class and obtained considerable leadership training from them. Mrs. Wolcott and Mr. D'Agostino, plus the members of the Leaders' Club, feel that this year has been one of the most successful years of the high school's physical education program. We commend the 1957-58 Longmeadow High School Leaders' Club for a job well done!

BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball season opened with an enthusiastic participation from all classes in the after-school program. After six weeks of spirited play, the Jet and White Tournament was held. The Jet Team won the tournament, losing only the freshman game.

Again this year Longmeadow participated in a playday. This game took place at the Trinity Church gym with the MacDuffie School for Girls on Tuesday, February 18, and climaxed the season. The team which the high school sent to this playday was the 1956-1957 All-Star Team, chosen from the Jet and White All-Star Teams.

At the close of the tournament the new Jet and White All-Star Teams were chosen and competed against each other on Sport Night.

"Bank Day" at the LANCER SAVINGS BANK, a Junior Achievement Company, provides the opportunity for Longmeadow High School students to save ahead for the things they want.

But the need for saving does not end with graduation. How you handle your money will play an important part in your happiness, for if you spend unwisely, you will find your money gone and your real goals still unattained.

Make this important decision now — that you will save regularly. Lancer books may always be used at any S.I.S. office, or we will be glad to open a new book if you have none.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1958, Longmeadow High School, in the County of Hampden, in the State of Massachusetts, being of lawful age and of sound mind and memory, but mindful of the uncertainties of life, do make, publish and declare, this our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills made by us.

I. Richard Leven leaves forty nine-pound rifles to the Drill Team.

II. Brad Parker wills his plaid tuxedo to Ronnie MacGregor.

III. To Mr. Pratt, his senior biology class bequeathes thirty-two blinders and a package of Chesterfields.

IV. Deena Rosen leaves Mr. Lopes to Vonla Burman.

V. Linda Swanson wills her first place in the lunch line to Sam Cady.

VI. Joy Ranslow leaves her pony-tail to Jo Peters.

VII. Jeff Simons leaves his "Book of Knowledge" to any freshman who has four years to memorize it.

VIII. The senior class wills Mrs. Alanzo a cookbook with this sentiment, "The best way to a man's heart is through his stomach."

IX. Christy Carlson leaves the well-worn road to Amherst to Sue Lawsing.

X. David Comptois bequeathes his cool shoes to Bobby Kittredge.

XI. Gail Stein leaves Mr. Climo in a more peaceful state of mind.

XII. To Mr. Haskell, we leave a full course dinner with everything from soup to nuts.

XIII. Penny Paul leaves her gentleness to Nancy Fisher.

XIV. Matt Betley left.

XV. Judy Daniels leaves her perpetual diets to Mary Beth Gladney.

XVI. The class of 1958 leaves a room adjacent to the corridor for next year's senior boys to gather before the grind.

XVII. The girls leave the boys the gym!

XVIII. Jimmy Mullane leaves his calm conversation to Pat Ashton.

XIX. The seniors leave the lunch table in care of Karen Henschke and Peter Russell.

XX. Marge Cohn leaves her quiet wit to Ed Mazer.

XXI. Jody Baldwin leaves Mr. Pratt's cold cat to all the cool cats around school.

XXII. Frank Ward leaves a certain junior girl to Jack Ward.

XXIII. Mary Alice Stusick bequeathes her harp to angelic Andy Morace.

XXIV. We leave Cal Coolidge to Mike Canter.

XXV. Marilyn Ineson leaves Mr. Schindler to his one pupil classes.

XXVI. This year's traffic officers leave with a parting word, "Slow down!!"

XXVII. Wayne Barnes leaves his slide-rule to Richard Levine.

XXVIII. Ray Strople leaves his taxie service to Lamar Walters.

XXIX. The senior class leaves Mrs. Leab five pink elephants from the senior dance.

XXX. The senior class leaves to Mr. Aldrich a phone in his room.

XXXI. Brad and Bob leave Miss MacIntyre much relieved.

XXXII. Sam Alspach and Bill Gilbert leave several unsigned — for broken test-tubes to Mr. Zapsalis.

XXXIII. The senior class leave their seasoned stomachs to the incoming class.

XXXIV. We leave some colored straws, those missing Student Council banners, a few spent BB's, the parking spaces in front of Friendly's, a pile of old passes — the halls empty, rooms five, six and seven lonely, the library quiet and the school bereft.

In witness thereof we affix our names on this fourth day of June in the year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Eight.

CLASS PROPHECY

It is June 6th, 1978 . . . the place is Moon Meadowlong Lodge . . . where else but the Moon . . . and YOU ARE THERE. The occasion is the 20th reunion of the Class of 1958 of Longmeadow High School.

For the past three or four years, rockets from points all over the Earth have been landing at Bradley Space Port. One of the first to arrive was the noted surgeon, DR. WILLIAM GILBERT, who recently completed an article on "Medical Problems of the Space Age". MARILYN INESON is his private secretary and JOAN ATHEARN is her assistant.

The "men" — DON DRINKWATER, TOM CORDIS, BOB CUTLER, PAUL BISESTI, RONNY STEWART, and DAVE COMPTOIS just bombed up in their white space ship. Following was LINDA SWANSON, in charge of a guided tour of the moon. On this tour were KITTY KNODE, recently returned from a trip to Mars, CINDY HODSKINS, and DIANE MEMERY.

JOYCE CROWLEY is in the midst of organizing a model agency, and has high hopes that her chief designer, SUE RYDER, will create some extraordinary fashions for GAIL STEIN to model. PAM ROBERTS, known for her loquaciousness, is in charge of public relations. Joyce has already had numerous orders — MARY ALICE STUSICK has ordered a black evening dress to wear for her appearance as concert-mistress of the Moon Symphony Orchestra. Soloists in the Moon Symphony are CAROLYN NIENHUYS, still tooting her flute, and PAT VECCHIARELLI, playing her glokenspiel. FRAN HAMILTON ordered a number of dresses to wear at her frequent parties at her private home on the Crescent Moon Lake. She has entertained ELAINE DEL VECCHIO, PEG SHEA, and her old friend, STAN HOGEMAN.

Getting to the moon was a problem to many of the old classmates. STEVE HIRSCH, arriving in his self-designed rocket, had aboard TED TAYLOR and WAYNE BARNES, both recognized scientists in the fields of mathematics and physics, respectively. DON SHAKOUR challenged RAY STROPLE to a Drag Race to the moon — the official starter was DICK VOLK. JOAN GUISTINA was at the earth station to collect the tolls necessary to take the quickest route to the moon. LEE GREER, LENNY DALE, JIM MULLANE, and RICHIE LEVEN were on hand to check the mechanical conditions in each of the rockets, and were close behind during the race to help in case of emergency. All these people were in a hurry to reach the moon in time for the 1978 Moon Olympics, the association of which RICHIE SCHNEIDER is president.

Quite a few former Longmeadow High students are to be featured in the Olympics. DON ROBB is favored to win the two-twenty race, and BOB SWANSON is to play on the Interplanetary Basketball Team. LAURIE LINCOLN is seated first on the Equestrian Team. BOB FLINT is on hand with his trusty camera to take all sorts of photographs and official records. BOB FUGERE didn't make the Olympics this year because a conflicting engagement with the Masters Tournament back on earth — latest news-flash . . . BOB FUGERE pulled through the Masters with a blazing 62!!

JUDY KNAUS didn't make it . . . she was gullible enough to believe there was no moon.

Many of the members of the Class of 1958, Longmeadow High School Massachusetts, United States, Earth, have proved most successful in their fields of endeavor. SUE DONOVAN successfully completed a case in the Court of Natural Rights . . . the case: JUDY DEWOLFE versus Mr. Edward Pratt. Miss DeWolfe declared her freedom of speech had been impaired. MARILYN BILLINGS has been working hard as a French interpreter at the United Earth-Moon Diplomatic Center. She and DARLENE GULVIN, who is also an interpreter, certainly benefited from Miss Onaita MacIntyre's French III class. JEFF SIMONS and MIKE LEATHEM have frequently displayed their forensic prowess when debating planetary affairs. LOIS KLEMPNER attended one of the debates as part of her diplomatic training.

RAY STROPLE recently opened a branch of Myron Ryder's Dance Studio, this year featuring New Year's Eve Specialties. His central studio is headquartered in Holyoke, a newly constructed moon city, of which TONY CALABRESE is mayor. ANNE DONOVAN, a student of Ray's, recently elected Moon Maiden, is now dancing to her heart's content. DAVE MERRILL, after extensive preparation on earth, has become a reknowned Certified Public Accountant. NANY JOHNSON is head of the therapeutic division at the Moon Hospital where ALISON PRATT, also a nurse, is doing extensive radiation therapy. JEAN METZLER is receptionist at the hospital.

JANE SALTZMAN didn't come to the moon . . . she is tied down with her obligations as house-mother at the large Harvard University, back on earth. CHRISTY CARLSON is managing her family these days . . . her hockey team won at Amherst College back on earth, and is slated to play here on the moon in the near future. JESSIE ADAMS, now mother of many, and LINDA FABYAN are also well-established housewives. DEENA ROSEN, Longmeadow's Sarah Bernhardt, dramatically announced her regret at being too indisposed to come . . . A close friend of Deena's, PAM HAYES (oops, I mean Margo Hayes), is now in the process of putting the finishing touches on the Moon's National anthem, "Give Me from Earth Your Tired, Your Poor". RALPH LEWIS, better known to us back at Longmeadow as JUNIOR, is presently a lieutenant Senior grade in the Moon Navy. SAM ALSPACH is reportedly chairman of the Moon Farmers' Exchange Bureau.

It was exciting to see some of the old classmates after 20 years. At a recent meeting of the Moon Red Cross, SUE ALDRICH was presiding. She is also educational advisor of the Junior Red Cross. JUDI DANIELS, our sunbeam and a connoisseur of green cheese, is in charge of sales at the largest department store,

"Lunar Limited". MARGE COHN is still industriously taking notes at Moon University, where JANET LARKIN was recently elected to the Physical Education Department. GAIL DARDEN is also at Moon U. taking advanced study in elementary education . . . JACKIE WARD is now an instructor of Gail's. BRAD PARKER is proprietor of an extremely successful motel . . . it has a tennis court for his private use. TIMMY PIERCE is currently traveling around the moon with a rather successful summer stock company . . . she still finds time to write poetry also. JAC PRINGLE is also a proprietor . . . of a very swanky night club, "Reunion Rendezvous."

When everyone finally arrived, the reunion officially began. So with a toot of a horn and a sip of moon juice (it's really good!) the long-awaited festivities commenced. As we leave this happy group enjoying themselves at Moon Meadowlong Lodge, our cameras return you to earth and YOU ARE THERE.

LAST WORDS

You'll remember our class by:

always being in debt
following established traditions our ever scampering, ever inquisitive squirrel the understanding that prevails at our class meetings the sound of splintering wood when Anne unexpectedly fell for Mr. Lopes the wandering eyes in Biology the infamous Jet Jotter meetings in the equally infamous Cloak Room the food "mysteriously" placed under the lunchroom table

Never let is be said that:

Laurie's suspenders were pinned, sewn and taped
Mr. Pratt doesn't catch his clothes on the chair
Judy DeWolfe doesn't reminisce
Mr. Haskell isn't specific
Ted was organized
Gail S. knew how to use a pen in Biology
Ray S. wasn't blushing
Kitty wasn't dieting
the Boys Leaders Club was poor the boys were happy about sharing the gym we won't miss L.H.S.

may the best of every-thing always be yours, Jonnie.
Debbie "60"

Jakonnie,
We certainly have had a great time this year in French, World Ed.; Gym, English and Biology. Have fun this summer and I'll be seeing you in September.

Best Wishes
